

Organizational Priorities

US Advocacy

- Establish religious freedom and the right of conscience as preeminent when religious exercise conflicts with SOGI and related mandates.
- Defeat attempts to expand Title IX to include gender identity protections.
- Protect religious freedom and the right of conscience for health care providers.
- Establish a robust marketplace of ideas for students and faculty on public campuses.
- Expand the right of churches, pastors, and religious organizations to operate with minimal state interference or coercion and allow them to speak the full counsel of God's word.

International Advocacy

- Establish religious freedom and the right of conscience prevail when they conflict with the SOGI or pro-abortion agenda.
- Secure and expand the right of churches and Christian ministries to operate with minimal state interference in the selection of personnel and expression.
- Establish a culture of free speech and a robust marketplace of ideas.
- Secure and expand the right of Christian parents to raise their children in conformity with their own Christian convictions.
- Significantly reduce the global persecution of Christians.
- Affirm that there is no right to abortion under international law.
- Affirm that there is no right to same-sex 'marriage' under international law.
- Prevent alternative forms of the family from becoming the legal and cultural norm.
